相原・古屋(あいはら・ふるや)文書 Aihara-Furuya Sub-Collection

相原文夫(あいはらふみお)氏は翻訳家、編集者として戦前の日本左翼運動に参加していました。戦後は活動家である氏の妻(古屋能子)とともに社会運動を続け、1960年代・70年代の新左翼運動の支持者となりました。夫妻が世を去ってからは夫妻の家族により書籍、個人的な書類といったものが 高沢氏に寄贈され、高沢文庫の相原・古屋文書の名をつけて高沢氏により整理されました。相原古屋文書の資料は相原氏によって日本語に翻訳された戦前のヨー ロッパのマルクス主義者の著書が多くあります。相原氏とギョルギ・ルカシュなどの著者たちとの間で交された書簡、相原氏が所有したドイツ語、英語の書籍雑誌の原書なども文庫に含まれています。

古屋能子(ふるやよしこ)氏は1960年代後半の反ベトナム戦争市民運動であるベ平連において活動し、婦人運動においても活動していました。この文庫は氏のベ平連の資料、抗議運動に関する切り抜き資料をはじめ、婦人運動やその他の運動で氏が書いた論文の写しも含んでいます。この文庫にある 書簡や他の個人資料は2000年に開封されました。

Aihara Fumio was a participant in the prewar Japanese Left who worked as a professional translator and editor. In the postwar era he and his wife, activist Furuya Yoshiko, remained active in social movements and became supporters of the New Left during the 1960s and 1970s. After their deaths, family members gave their books and personal papers to Takazawa Kōji, who subsequently arranged to have them included as a named sub-collection in the Takazawa Collection. The Aihara-Furuya materials contain a number of very early prewar Japanese translations of books by European Marxists that were translated by Aihara Fumio. Some correspondence between Aihara and these authors, such as Gyorgy Lukacs, is also in the collection, along with some German and English originals of books and serials that Aihara owned.

Furuya Yoshiko was active in the Beheiren anti-Vietnam war citizens' movement in the late 1960s, in the women's movement, and in many other social movements. The collection includes her Beheiren materials and clipping files on protest events, as well as copies of articles she wrote on the women's movement and other subjects. Personal papers in this sub-collection were unsealed in the year 2000 but have not yet been catalogued.

This box contains two furoshiki or wrapping cloths in which some of the materials from the Aihara-Furuya subcollection were wrapped when the Takazawa Collection received them. These cloths were routinely used for wrapping and carrying items until the 1980s, when paper shopping bags became the more stylish alternative. However, many older women still use the handy furoshiki. We have left these in the collection because they may become rarer cultural artifacts in the future. These are not particularly traditional examples—one is actually a French designer cloth—but they were apparently in regular use by Furuya Yoshiko.

Letters to Aihara Fumio in German

This box contains 149 letters, both original and photocopied. Most of the materials are correspondence between Aihara Fumio, who was a professional translator, and the authors and publishers abroad with whom he worked. The original correspondence is material he received, including a letter from Gyorgy Lukacs who was answering a query about a translation. The box also includes the original drafts of the letters that Aihara Fumio composed in German to be sent to his correspondents, so that in many cases both sides of the correspondence can be reconstructed. Much of it concerns mundane matters of permissions and payments from publishers. The letters date from 1952 to 1960.

United Shobo was a bookstore in Kanda that carried a lot of left materials, including ephemeral materials published by New Left groups, and also published some materials. The store was searched in September 1974 and 150 copies of a bomb manual carrying an unrelated innocuous title were confiscated and the owner, Endō Tadao, was charged with violation of Article 4 of the Explosives Control Law. Some manuscripts related to the case were found in Furuya Yoshiko's materials. The “jikokuhyo” listed in these materials is not a timetable, but the name of a small serial that Unita Shobo published. The serial is in the collection as Serial ID#32.

Through much of the 1970s and 1980s there was a long-running conflict over the construction of Narita International Airport in the Chiba village of Sanrizuka. The New Left became heavily involved in the conflict and many participants were arrested. There are many materials in the Furuya Yoshiko subcollection from the appeal trial in the early 1980s, presumably because Furuya Yoshiko was involved in the support group. Since they are manuscripts, they are included here rather than in the Court Documents section.
