Anti-war Student League (Hansen Gakusei Dōmei) handbills from the 1950s

This folder contains five handbills from Hansen Gakusei Dōmei, a student organization of the 1950s. This group was centrally involved in the factional disputes in Zengakuren during the 1950s, and originated the theory of students as a separate sub-class, as distinct from the JCP theory that students were subsumed as part of its organization of labor youth. As the New Left split from the JCP in the late 1950s, Hansen Gakusei Dōmei grew rapidly as a campus based organization and was renamed as Shakai Gakusei Dōmei (Shagakudō) and became the main student organization affiliated with Kyōsanshugisha Dōmei (Bund).

Sensui Hiroshi investigation data

Sensui Hiroshi was a common criminal who was released to the Japanese Red Army in the Dacca hijacking of 1977 and subsequently spent some years with the group and was on international wanted lists as a member. After Maruoka Osamu's arrest in the late 1980s, Sensui was traced to the Philippines, where he had been living under an assumed name with a Filipina wife. He was arrested while undergoing cosmetic surgery to alter his appearance, and was deported back to Japan for trial. The 34 items here are primarily newspaper clippings and miscellaneous materials from the late 1980s when he was captured and returned to Japan.
